Be Born Again

It is always important to know what you are doing. Life does not just happen. God gives you choices and you can do your own thing or submit to His leading. If you allow Him to lead, He can do the unthinkable through you.

The Bible is true. There is a heaven to be gained and a hell to be shunned. There are 54 references to hell in the Bible. By God's Grace, we will get to Heaven, but first we must live here in this life to make a difference in other people, because God loves other people just as much as He loves us. He wants them to go to heaven with us also, even if they are ugly, hurting, stupid or whatever. The goal of our lives should be to get as many people to heaven with us as possible.

Yes, you are a GRAND(AWESOME) child. As your grandparent, I love, want, and cherish you. You have people who prayed for you to get here and who pray for you today. In my eyes, I view you as far superior than the children of other parents. Nevertheless, face it; you came into this world just as anyone else does. You came into this world as a sinner—pooping, selfish, with a rotten disposition, crying, squalling, sulking, pouting, misbehaving, and disobedient to your parents, jealous of others and on and on. In short: You were born under the curse of sin and death. That is why you needed your family, especially your father and mother to teach you the ropes on how to live well in this world.

The same thing is why you need God, because your parents are just an extension of your Heavenly Father. Yes, your parents are not perfect as God is, making many mistakes, because they are sinners also. All of us are imperfectly born into a beautiful world God created.

We all are living under the curse Adam and Eve brought into this world and will surely die, unless we can live sinless. Knowing you for just a little while, I can tell you: as grand and awesome as you are, you already blew it as far as perfection is concerned and you will die. The only person that ever lived a sinless, perfect life on this earth was Jesus and that is why He did not have to die, but died by choice. Death could not keep Him dead, because He never committed a sin. Ever! Jesus was the only one who could go back to God and live in Heaven.

Yes, He chose to die. He did not have to, but chose to die for you and me, so we could be reconciled with God!

That Jesus is alive is a historical fact well documented. There were more than 500 eyewitnesses, who saw His resurrected body. The whole resurrection story checked out. It was documented by totally impartial Romans, who could not do anything but wonder how this could happen: how a dead man became alive again. You see, the Romans were not interested in God or any Messiah, they had their own man-made gods and did not care one bit about God's plan of redemption, deliverance or exchange.

So how can we get out of this curse of decay and death? Easy, with God. Keep reading.
