Take a moment to stop for someone else. Helping others helps you.

“The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.”

PSALM 23 (KJV)

Church Work and Kingdom Work go together. Not only pay your tithes and offerings, but do work in the field also. Do Kingdom Work along with Church Work. Get out in the field like Jesus did. Here is my personal example of how to use God's Word. My son was in jail in Athens, Georgia, facing 15 years. He had several charges against him. My wife and I decided to see him the day before the trial. When we arrived at the jail, I spotted this lady crying at the gate. She was approximately 83 years of age. I said to my wife, “Let's check this lady out to see why she is crying.” My wife wanted to keep on going to see my son. I said, “If you want to help your son, we got to find out why this lady is crying at the gate.”

So we walked over to this lady and asked her why she was crying. She said, my husband got beat up last night and I paid my cab driver my last $8 to see him and they will not let me in to see him because I do not have the proper id.” I spoke up real bold and I meant it. I said to this lady, “Let’s go back to the same jailer and go in.”

She said, “How you going to do that? I just left there.” I said, “The three of us are going to start right now saying the 23rd psalm. Right now together aloud and make it plural. And we going to believe it from the top of our head to the bottom of our feet. And we are going to BIND that whole jail. “The lord is our Sheppard, we shall not want...” And guess what happened? Before the jailer could get the ugly words out of his mouth, the head jailer came out and said, “Lady, I am going to let you in this time but do not come back in here any more with out the proper id. We not talking about next time—we talking about this time--NOW.

The lady turned around and asked me, what church do you belong to? Ladies and gentlemen, I am not talking about the building where we worship God, I am talking about the church inside each one of us. If we do not go out there and execute that church when we see or hear about a disturbing situation; it is just like that church doesn’t even exist.

When you start doing this, the blessings will drop like snowflakes falling from the sky. The next day, at the trial, when my son stood up in front of that judge, the judge just looked at him. Then the judge picked up the file from the desktop, and whirled around in his big fancy chair and looked out in space for about five minutes and said, “Son go home.”

Now, I want to ask everyone who reads this testimony, “What do you think would have happened if my wife and I had not took the time out of our busy schedules to ask the lady why was she crying? Use the 23rd Psalm as a “door opener” Scripture in your situations; use it in the plural. Blessings to you!
