Each One! Bless One!

* * * * *

Jesus Christ of Nazareth spoke to Father God every day.

It is important for us to speak to the Holy Spirit, Christ Jesus, or Father God concerning everything we do daily; morning, noon, and night.

“I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.”

JOHN 5:30 (KJ)

“Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.”

1 PETER 2:24 (KJ)

Eliminate self. Part One. Jesus Christ left His S-E-L-F on the Cross. We have to place our s-e-l-f on the Cross of Jesus. Our s-e-l-f is conquered when we place it on the Cross. More often than not Christians who believe they are moving in the Will of God, are often moving in the will of self. They believe they are doing the correct thing(s). They believe they are doing what God wants them to do. But they really are doing what they like to do, what they want to do, or what pleases them. The way you can tell is that they remain in their comfort zones. These Christians cannot see where they are in their Christian walk, nor are they able to see the fallacy in their walk because the comfort zone in which self resides, has got them half-blinded, their emotions jaded, they walk in a pseudo-godly direction, and their speech is in the nature of a religious spirit, not immersed in Spirit and the Truth.

How is this so? When one believes when they pray the prayer, Father God, place my life in the direction where You want me to go. Or show me what to do and show me where to go. Or Father God guide my feet, take my life where You want it to go; or prayers similar to these, the believer, then puts self in the driver's seat of his or her spiritual and physical life. Proverbs 3:5-6 is what should be applied in everyone's life. “Acknowledge Him and all that ways that He will direct (smooth) your paths.” Or when Jesus says, “pray always.” Luke 21:36. What these Scriptures mean is to always bring what you are planning to do before Father God or Christ Jesus before you actually do it; instead of asking for forgiveness, for the mess that you get into because you did not do it this way.

All of this means is that you have to have communication between you and your Heavenly Father. Or you and Christ Jesus. Or you and the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has told me how to get people to hear Him if they do not hear from the Holy Spirit. We as Christians, all, are supposed to be hearing from the Holy Spirit, daily--morning, noon, and night--all day long!

Why do I say self has been put in the drivers seat? If the believer has the Holy Spirit, then the Holy Spirit would direct your paths. They will only have to listen for the small quiet voice, and that voice will direct their paths and lead them where to go. Proverbs 3:5-6. “Acknowledge God in all about ways, and He will direct thy paths.” If any person does not have the Holy Spirit, they will not be able to listen to that small quiet voice and move in their spiritual direction for that moment and for that day. What they will then do is depend on their decisions, (hear SE-L-F) or the way society is moving as a whole, or the way that neighborhood, the church, their friend's, or the accepted way that society has directed for humankind to move--this is the direction that the person will go. In the Scripture, this is called the blind leading the blind. (Matthew 15:14)

A person who has been moved by the Holy Spirit, or believe they have the Holy Spirit, but does not hear from the Holy Spirit must ask themselves this question:

Do I really have the Holy Spirit? Or could it be a religious spirit? Not all spirits are of God. There are many different types of spirits; many evil spirits. Our bodies are vessels designed to hold spirits. Therefore, a person can have the Holy Spirit indwelling, or some other spirit other than the Holy Spirit, i.e., a religious spirit. A religious spirit acts like the Holy Spirit. It can give you the Holy Ghost movements. It can give you the speaking in tongues sound and it can slay you. What is an important thing about being slain in the spirit--are you slain on your face, as in the form of submission? Or are you lying in the spirit on your back? As a form of saying, "you need to get your focus on Me," says Father God. Or are you out of order with the service? Are you laying slain in the spirit as the service continues?--that is out of order; that is a spirit that is not in order with Father God. It has been bound, so it cannot disturb the service.

If one is on their back, this is a symbol, spiritually, that God wants you to focus on Him. He wants you to focus on Him, because your direction, your focus was looking in the wrong direction. On your back, suggests that your focus and direction was not looking to Heaven when you should have been looking to Heaven. If the Holy Spirit is not directing your paths, i.e. suggesting to you where to go, what to do, and how to do it, then you need to be aware that your movement is being directed by S-E-L-F. Yes, you can make some good decisions and have a good quality of life. And yes, you can make some poor decisions and have a less quality of life. But our lives need to be directed by the Holy Spirit.

It is important for everyone who is a Christian to be seeking the Holy Spirit, to get the Holy Spirit, and to be listening to the Holy Spirit as the Messiah is nearing our planet. When you pray the prayer for the Lord to give you direction in your life, and you do not hear the Holy Spirit speaking to you, and you move in your life doing the things that you want to do that makes you happy, to give you peace, that give you security, that give you the things that society judges that everyone should have to have --a high quality of life--opulence and decadence; be careful. The multiple cars, multiple houses, multiple shoes, and multiple closet wardrobes are not a reflection of Jesus--you must understand you're not moving like, nor living like Jesus Christ, who was God in the flesh, Who walked this earth.

Jesus Christ did not move in material gain. He did not move in the collection of all money and goods and services, for his miracles. He did not say if you want to go to Heaven, and have Eternal Life collect as much money and stuff as possible. “Sell, what you have, and give to the poor.” He wants us to have a quality life, and to share what we have with others and to love one another and to help one another. But He does not want us to try to “keep up with the Joneses” and make as much money as the next millionaire and hoard that money and think, oh, the Scripture says, “The poor will be with us always.” So it's okay for there to be poor people. That is the way of the life of a sinner is going to bust hell wide open.

When a Christian moves in self, not hearing from the Holy Spirit, what happens is self competes with the Holy Spirit for the ear, vision, emotions, works, and the direction of the Christian. It becomes more and more difficult to live like Jesus, when month after month, and year after year, the Christian follows self. The Christian hears, less and less from the Holy Spirit or Christ Jesus, and more and more from S. E. L. F. It becomes more difficult to live the type of life left for us to follow as exhibited by the example of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

“For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:” 1 Peter 2:21 (KJ)

“Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?” Matthew 16:24-26 (KJ)
