You see when Jesus Christ came to earth and left this earth, He had, put down, or conquered all rule and authority and power over the world and world systems. He is reigning, and has been reigning every since He finished His job.

“10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed. 12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: 14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. 16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised: 17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. 19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.”

The Great Deception. Part Two. See Part One, Friday, August 13, 2010. Brother Nikola Dimitrov from Bulgaria, the author of “The Four in One Gospel of JESUS” says, that “Satan” has only one tool which he uses and that tool is DECEPTION. I believe that “The Great Deception” is: that Christians believe that the Kingdom of Heaven has not come to you when it has; brought to you by the King Himself—Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Christ is being raised in your lives today in the reading and hearing of these words. (CONTINUED)

Humankind generally interprets visions, dreams and spiritual experiences linearly (terrestrially or carnally) instead of spiritually due to his lack of spirituality or due to his daily terrestrial or carnal routines. This passage instead of speaking concerning the Second Coming or the Rapture is speaking concerning Jesus, Who is the Christ, as having come already and conquered and put “death” to death, securing for us Eternal Life through Christ; as Jesus (Emmanuel) bore the Christ inside, so do we bear the Christ inside. As Father God did miracles through The Christ in Jesus, so does Father God do miracles, signs, and wonders through The Christ which resides in us (And yes, Hal, The Christ is "The Restrainer."). This passage has been misinterpreted by Paul or misrepresented by the Catholic Ecumenical Council as being something which we have to wait for to happen in the future. This event: Jesus conquering "death," happened after The Crucifixion when Jesus went to "hell" and gained "authority" over "hell" and "death." Remember, I view, as should you, "Death" and "Hell" as personifications of those words, not words only or locations only. When viewed this way, these words, these personifications take on a new meaning and you can get a clearer picture of the spiritual realm which exists beside and within and outside our own.

(1 Corinthians 15:10-19) In these passages Paul is speaking about the possibility and reality of the Resurrection unto Eternal life through Jesus Christ of Nazareth; through Jesus, Who is The Christ. In verse 23: Christ is the Firstfruits as He was here before the creation of the world. "They" that are Christ's is speaking about humankind (Christians) become alive as Christ (Jesus) came alive... "at His coming" i.e., have access to Eternal Life by giving their lives to Jesus. I believe this is the misinterpretation by Paul: not His Rapture nor His Second Coming, but in Christ coming AS IN THE BODY OF JESUS.

In this body He conquered Death, perhaps destroying death; verse 24, the end was for sure when Jesus Christ came to earth, but the antichrist and its forces keeps mankind from seeing the Kingdom of Heaven, the Kingdom of God is here and we are living in it, but the GREAT DECEPTION is that we are waiting for it to come. You see when Jesus Christ came to earth and left this earth, He had, verse 24b, put down, or conquered all rule and authority and power over the world and world systems. He is reigning, and has been reigning every since He finished His job... that is why Jesus says, He has done what He was supposed to do; His job was finished... and He did finish it. Jesus Christ has put his enemies under His feet. So you see, I believe that Paul got lost in the time differential, in his thinking about time in a linear manner, when time is spiritual in nature and multi-dimensional and for us it is linear because that is where the nature of our understanding is.
