Speak what Jesus spoke. Do what Jesus did. Live like Jesus lived.

“And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.”

Luke 4:4

Lord's Name in Vain. Part Four. Read Part One, 10 January 2012. Father God bless Your children to hear and understand that which is for them. Amen.(Continuing) I may not have been so attuned to taking the Lord's name in vain but for an elderly Republican, Christian lady, Mrs. Elliott. One day she came to church to hear me sing in the choir at a local Atlanta church. Later that evening when I spoke with her, she went on and on about how this one lady in church routinely yelled out, “Jesus!” This was a liberal Presbyterian church, mind you, but Mrs. Elliott railed on about the lady violating the Third Commandment. Mrs. Elliott was correct.

“Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. John 8:28 Jesus spoke what the Father had Him to speak. We are to speak what Jesus spoke. Most other speaking is vanity and does not move us towards our spiritual nor divine nature. “But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” Matthew 4:4

As Christians, we must use the name of the Father and Jesus to promote an atmosphere or spiritual place for healing, miracles, signs, and wonders; instead of selfish, attention getting, unaware, God-prostituting, self-garnishing, anti-3rd Commandment exclamations.
