There are achievements your have had in life and places you like going. There are memorable experiences. Yet in all this, one day, not far from today you will stand before King Jesus and give a personal account.

“³ For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; ⁴ And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. ⁵ But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.”

2 TIMOTHY 4:3-5 (KJ)

CHRIST THE JUDGE. Part Four. See Part One, 6 March; Part Two, 10 March; Part Three, 13 March 2011. Praise the Lord Jesus. Praise the Lord Church. Praise the Lord Saints of God. Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

As I have always reminded you that all the end time alarms are ringing. The coming of Christ in the RAPTURE of the church has drawn terribly near. All indicators are screening red; time is far much gone. Mathew 24, Luke 21, 2 Timothy 3:1-5, 2 Peter 3:3-9, Daniel 12:9-10, 2 Timothy 4:3-5 - all these significant pointers of the end of times and of the return of the Lord are pointing precisely at the times we are living in.

Romans 13:11-12 makes it clearer that, “And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armour of light.”

I may come on board and want to join many in making boasts; I have preached to many, I have prayed for many and God has healed them and demons have fled, I have been to many places, I have seen and walked in the demonstration of the power of God.

Well. Glory to God. Thanks to the Holy Spirit for working all that to the praise and honor of God but my friends, all this boasting will be in vain if we fail to enter heaven. If I stumble now and fall, then all this will be evidence in judgment against me. That is why I give myself fully to the Holy Spirit that He may be master over me and when I am gone from the earth I may enter the kingdom of God.

I know there are things and people you really treasure. There are achievements you have had in life. There are habits you have picked up on this life's journey. There are places to which you like going. There are memorable experiences some horrible, some pleasant. Yet in all this, one day, not far from today you will stand before King Jesus and give a personal account. Depending on the outcome of that hearing and judgment at the throne of God, then your eternal fate will be decided.

In Mathew 7:21-23, Jesus spoke openly about many who will be turned away at the judgment hour despite them having a claim of knowing and even serving Christ. He said, “Not everyone who says to me, Lord, Lord, will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my father in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles? Then I will tell them plainly, I never knew you. Away from me you evildoers!”

How I pray that you will immediately begin to prepare to appear before Jesus. How bad will that Day of Judgment be to you if you are found on the offensive side. Remember, after Jesus had met and dined with Zacheus and told the parable of the ten Minas, He finished by remarking, “but those Enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them, bring them here and KILL them in front of me.” (Luke 19:27) These are the words of CHRIST THE JUDGE.
