"Jesus is the nucleus of my life," says Bhatti,

"and I want to be His true follower through my actions by sharing the love of God with poor, oppressed, victimized, needy and suffering people of Pakistan.

"This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

JOHN 15:12-13 (KJ)

Muslims vs. Islamists. Part Two. Dear brothers and Sisters God bless you. Praise Father God. On March 2, 2011 the Christian Minister whose name is Shahbaz Bhatti was killed by Muslims and they fired 30 bullets into his face and shoulder. The Blasphemy Law 295 killed this man and kills Christians every month and year. And the Body of Christ, the Christians are suffering in Pakistan and life is very hard in Pakistan.

This Minister is from our City and our area and my Father's Friend. Mr. Shahbaz Bhatti, Federal Minister for Minority Affairs was assassinated by unknown assailants on March 2, 2011, near his residence in I/8 Sector, Islamabad. He received 30 bullets fired by two gunmen with automatic rifle(s). He was rushed to a Hospital by his driver, and pronounced dead by the doctors.

While the Taliban claimed the responsibility, the attack was widely condemned at national and international level. President, Prime Minister of Pakistan, Chief Minister Punjab, Muthida Qaumi Movement, Minister for Foreign Affairs Germany, Pakistan Muslim League N, Civil Society of Pakistan and Christian leadership has strongly condemned the assassination of Mr. Bhatti. His funeral is expected to take place on March 4, with the burial in Khushpur, his native village near Faisalabad.

The backdrop of the assassination is the need and demand to bring about changes in the blasphemy laws of Pakistan with their known abuse and discrimination. After the assassination of Governor Salman Taseer who expressed sympathy for Aasia Bibi, a Christian convicted under the blasphemy law, this is another attack on the freedom of expression and conscience of the people of Pakistan and sovereignty of the state. The extremist forces want to silence all enlightened and moderate voices. The country has lost a patriot, and a progressive voice. He had played a key role in promoting interfaith harmony, and he was a great asset. We are sad over his tragic death.

He has dedicated his life to "struggle for human equality, social justice, religious freedom, and to uplift and empower the religious minorities' communities." He added that he wants to send "a message of hope to the people living a life of disappointment, disillusionment and despair."

"Jesus is the nucleus of my life," says Bhatti, "and I want to be His true follower through my actions by sharing the love of God with poor, oppressed, victimized, needy and suffering people of Pakistan. I will propose legislative reforms for the promotion and protection of minorities' rights. I will speed up efforts to promote unity and understanding to tackle the issues of intolerance, hatred, prejudice and violence."

He has sacrificed his life like Jesus Christ for his Christian people in Pakistan. He was struggling for the human rights of Christians in Pakistan. He was a leading voice for religious freedom and peace in Pakistan, was assassinated March 2.

Our help is Jesus Christ and our weapon is Prayer... Our Prayers are with you always... Your help make the difference...
