Is there any real freedom other than spiritual freedom?

Do the other freedoms make you free? Or do you only "feel" free?

"And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born." ACTS 22:28

"³¹ Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; ³² And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

JOHN 8:31-32 (KJ)

Tribalism. Part Three. Dock Brown. See Part One, Saturday 13 November 2010; Part Two, Monday, 10 January 2011. I was in North Carolina recently for the funeral of a civil rights icon. His name is Dock Brown from Weldon, North Carolina. While he was alive, he was the only living African American who had a Post Office named after him. Dock Brown has a biography which reads like an African-American civil rights hero: former town commissioner, involved with Shaw University, Korean War infantryman, involved with North Carolina Central University, teacher for 30 years, basketball coach, North Carolina House of Representatives, receiving the state's highest civilian honor, deacon of First Baptist Church in Roanoke Rapids, voter registration involvement, NAACP, and the list goes on and on. I had the honor to me Dock Brown two years before his death. Father God bless and keep him and his family in His Love. Amen.

I took AC Brown to Dock's funeral. The day of the funeral we went to breakfast at a local restaurant. The local waitresses did not have a clue who Dock Brown was nor of any of his accomplishments. But I bet you they could have told me which brother or sister did what crime having being reported in the day before's local news. You know how the local news keep poor blacks on television, promoting poor black decision-makers versus good or great black decision-makers.

While I was in North Carolina, someone said in excited tones, “Do you know that many African countries are only now being taught about their history from their (African) perspective, instead of from the perspective of the European slave owners? Can you believe that?” I communicate with Africans from many different countries weekly, so I am much more abreast of many African situations than this person could have possibly known. This person was feeding on what “the system” feeds American blacks about African blacks to keep American blacks from having the perspective of having a country which they should support other than the one which they were brought to as slaves (most, not all).

What many do not know is this. Gotta keep it short. A sister from Nigeria explained to me how in Nigeria if you want to get married, the two individuals once they decide they want to marry have to: 1) the male must present his request to the female’s father with gifts, etc., 2) once the female’s family accepts then the families come together with exchange of gifts and the joining of the two families, 3) then the marriage is scheduled and the marriage happens with the joining of not only the two individuals but the two families.

If by chance one of the married persons wants out of the marriage, they have to deal with the families. The two families come together and counsel the two people to resolve their issues. You see in Nigerian Christian communities, divorce is not acceptable and is not an option; marriage is forever. That is Scriptural. Can you imagine if American families, American courts, judges, icons, and society would follow the Holy Scriptures instead of their personal whims which often change from season to season. If Black Americans, White Americans, Yellow Americans, Brown Americans, and Red Americans would only have enough FAITH to follow the Holy Words of Jesus, this world in which we live, would be Heaven and evil would be defeated instead of promoted.
